

7. Program to Demonstrate the Operators.

- In Tableau, operators are used within calculated fields to perform various operations on data values. You can create calculated fields using these operators to transform and manipulate your data.
- The different operators are Arithmetic, comparison, logical, and string operators.

